FOR REFLECTION:

"A meeting face to face with God is always a moment of judgement for us. We cannot meet God in prayer and meditation or in contemplation and not be either saved or condemned…. To meet God face to face… is a critical moment in our lives and thanks be to Him that He does not always present Himself to us when we wish to meet Him, because we may not be able to endure such a meeting. Remember the many passages in Scripture in which we are told how bad it is to find ourselves face to face with God, because God is power, God is truth, God is purity. Therefore, the first thought we ought to have when we do not tangibly perceive the divine presence, is a thought of gratitude. God is merciful; He does not come in an untimely way". Archbishop Anthony Bloom.
