

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;

Thy kingdom come; thy will be done;

On earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us;

and lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory.

For ever and ever. Amen

Organ Voluntary on “The Old Hundredth” by Henry Purcell

Welcome and Introduction

Hymn 100 All people that on earth do dwell

Reading

Creator God, maker of all that is, we offer you our praise:

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

You brought light out of darkness, day for our fulfilment and night for our rest:

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

You raised the mountains, laid low the plains, filled the seas with life and sprinkled the sky with stars:

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

You formed people: children, women and men, diverse, complex, creative and beautiful:

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

You did not abandon us to chaos, but remain intimately involved in our story:

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

You revealed your love in the life of your Son, your Word made flesh, living among us:

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

You move within our lives as Holy Spirit, opening our eyes to your grace and truth:

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Creator God, maker of all that is, we offer you our praise:

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Accept our praise in Christ's name.

Amen
