FOR REFLECTION....

Prayer is not "going to God" (He's already in you) or "seeking God" (He's already found you) or "opening yourself to God" (you couldn't keep Him out if you tried) or "becoming spiritual" (He's already sent you the Spirit). And it's certainly not buttering God up with abject apologies for your existence - because in His beloved Son, He already thinks you're dandy. Prayer is just talking with someone who is already talking to you.

Robert Capon.
