FOR REFLECTION:

"All death can now do to Christians is to make their lives infinitely better."

"The central basis of Christian assurance is not how much our hearts are set on God, but how unshakably his heart is set on us."

"If Jesus rose from the dead, then you have to accept all that he said. If he didn't, then why worry about any of what he said? The issue on which everything hangs is not whether you like his teaching, but whether he rose from the dead."

"Contemporary people tend to examine the Bible, looking for things they can't accept; but Christians should reverse that, allowing the Bible to examine us, looking for things God can't accept."

"Tolerance isn't about not having beliefs. It's about how your beliefs lead you to treat people who disagree with you."

"The gospel says you are simultaneously more sinful and flawed than you ever dared believe, yet more loved and accepted than you ever dared hope."

- Tim Keller
