FOR REFLECTION:

"I am convinced that when we bring our griefs and sorrows within the story of God's own grief and sorrow and allow them to be held there, God is able to bring healing to us and new possibilities to our lives. That is, of course, what Good Friday and Easter are all about".

"The message of Easter is that God's new world has been unveiled in Jesus Christ and that you're now invited to belong to it".

"Christian holiness consists not of trying as hard as we can to be good but of learning to live in the new world created by Easter, the new world we publicly entered in our baptism. There are many parts of the world we can't do anything about except pray. But there is one part of the world, one part of physical reality, that we can do something about and that is the creature each of us call 'myself'".

- Bishop Tom Wright
